

All Assam Women Writers Association

Silver Jubilee Celebration

On 4th December 1999, Dr Sheela Barthakur hoisted the flag to begin the programme of the Silver jubilee celebration. Sri Mrinali Chetia inaugurated a platform in memory of Hemaprabha Saikia, the president of Tinsukia Session from donation offered by her husband Sri Manik Chandra Saikia. The vice chancellor of Tezpur University, Sri Pradipeswar Bhattacharya inaugurated a souvenir (Karnakya) to commemorate the Silver Jubilee and another 25 books including (Nari aru Bkyaktitba) published by the Tezpur branch. Professor Himadri Devi led the discussion forum titled "The present and future of All Assam Women Writers Association" Sri Dhanada Kalita, Dr Rupashree Goswami and Sri Kesab Saikia participated in the discussion. While inaugurating the Open Session, Dr. Taruna Thakur requested for social reforms through literature. Addressing the crowd as a chief guest, Sri Chandraprabha Saikia expressed that the All Assam Women Writers Association be converted into a spiritually moral power. Special guest Dr Anima Guha expressed that the organization has expanded not only in the cities but also into the villages. Sri Brindaban Goswami spoke a few words. President Dr Barthakur gratified by 66 memorizing all those who had offered their service since the beginning of the Association. In view of the Silver Jubilee celebration, an open session and a competition of chorus was organized.