

All Assam Women Writers Association

Planning for the year 2016-18

- To modernize the head office at Tezpur and expand thereof.
- To establish a library.
- To expand the office and employ office assistant.
- To establish another office in Guwahati and land accrual.
- To decide and convene meeting in association with National Book Trust and Sahitya Academy.
- To prepare work force in order to activate organizational structure.
- To observe conference of new women writers.
- To institute workshops of poems and stories.
- To institute conference of the Secretaries and Presidents of the branches.
- To increase branches across India and in Mumbai.
- To increase number of branches in NE.
- To institute memorial program in memory of Pratima Thakuria in Delhi.
- To uplift Assamese language in America.
- To establish a publishing council.
- To publish the spokes magazine “Lekhika” every year.
- To establish stalls for trading of books published by All Assam Women Writers Association.
- To publish news in all news papers.
- To set up conferences of tribal women writers.
- To reward new women writer.